THE Numb. 433.

MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the freſheſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, Auguſt 23, 1753.

From the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE, for April.

SIR,

I SEND you a Curioſity which you are deſired to lay up in your Muſeum, for the Entertainment of Poſterity.

I am, Sir, your humble Servant, J. D.

AT Burcott, near Bromſgrove, Worceſterſhire, lives John Tallis, whoſe Manner of Life is very extraordinary:—He was born at Solihull in Warwickſhire about the Year 1676. In the Beginning of the Year 1724, being then about 48 Years of Age, he cauſed a Room to be prepared for his Reception with ſuch ſcrupulous Diligence to prevent the Acceſſion of freſh Air, that only one Window was admitted, conſiſting but of four Panes, and the Glaſs was directed to be more than thrice as thick as common, from an Opinion that by a Body ſo ſubtle as the Air, thin Glaſs might be pervaded. To this Room he retired from the World, but ſtill regarding that Fluid which ſupplies to all Animals the Breath of Life, as his mortal Enemy, he thought ſome further Precaution neceſſary for his Defence. In the Year 1725 therefore he went to Bed, from which he has not ſince riſen; and as his Head in this Situation is chiefly expoſed, he has covered it with Swathings, Wrappers, and Caps, that conſiſt of near 100 Yards of Flannel, and he is often as long and as buſily employed in adjuſting the ſeveral Strings by which theſe innumerable Coverings are ſecured, as a Sailor in righting his Tackle after a Storm: He has Stoppers fitted to each Noſtril; he uſually holds a Piece of Ivory in his Mouth, and a Piece of Woollen Cloth is laid over his Face; his Shirts are lin'd with Swanſkin, and the Breaſt and Sides are quilted.

When I beheld him, he open'd his Eyes and ſtretch'd himſelf like a Bat that is juſt awaking from a Sleep of ſix or ſeven Months; but, as he awaked thirſty and diſordered, he reached his Cup, which was conſtantly placed near him with ſome cooling Liquor, and having drank, he exhibited his right Hand decorated with many Rings, which he ſurveyed with great Appearance of Satisfaction and Complacency; and entered into a Deſcription of Babel, the Nile, and Crocodiles. With Reſpect to his religious Opinion he is a Quietiſt; and tho' he is not uſeful, he is at leaſt harmleſs. There appears to be ſome Tincture of Avarice in his Diſpoſition, and the dark Corner into which he has retired from the more faſhionable Vanities of Life does not appear wholly to have excluded Affectation and Pride.——

DUBLIN, May 18.

THE following ſurprizing Account from the County of Wicklow, may be depended on for Truth: On Saturday laſt when a Gentleman's Family near Hermitage, aroſe in the Morning, they found the Houſe, to their great Surprize, ſtanding a Mile or more to the Northward, than it was the Day before, without ſo much as a Chimney being thrown down, or a Pane of Glaſs broken by the Shock. Several of the neighbouring Houſes underwent the ſame Change, but without any Loſs or Damage.

LONDON.

May 3. Among the many Regulations intended for the Iſland of Jamaica, there is one for the eaſier Recovery of Debts, and ſpeedier Trials at Law.

May 10. It is reported, that his Majeſty will viſit his German Dominions next Spring, on Affairs of great Importance.

We hear that the Parliament will ſit 'til the middle of June, and meet again in October; and in March following be diſſolved, when a Proclamation will be iſſued for chuſing a new One.

May 12. Thurſday was held a Board of Admiralty, when all the Lords were preſent, and we hear that Orders were ſent to Deptford, Woolwich and Chatham to expedite the Ships upon the Stocks, and employ an additional Number of Hands for that Purpoſe.

May 15. A few Days ago a merry Incident happen'd at an Inn at Hertford; ſome Perſons came thither, and deſired the Landlord of the Houſe to get them a Hare, and dreſs it, let it coſt what it would; on which the Landlord replied, It was out of his Power, the late Aſſociation having prevented him from obliging his Friends or Company with any ſuch Favour; but the Company inſiſting on one at any Price, and he taking them to be Gentlemen, accordingly got one, and before it was dreſs'd, a Summons was ſent by a worthy Magiſtrate of that Town to come to him, where he was acquainted that Oath had been taken, and Information given, that he was dreſſing a Hare for ſome Perſons, having come by it illegally; on which he was to forfeit Five Pounds. The Landlord aſtoniſh'd at ſuch a Demand, told the Juſtice the Story, who adviſed him to pay the Penalty and bid him charge it in the Reckoning with Dreſſing, &c. and if they refuſed Payment, his Worſhip would oblige them: Which was accordingly done, to the no ſmall Mortification of the Informers, and the great Diſappointment to them of dining on the Game on the Expence of the Landlord, with Hopes of Money into the Bargain.

May 16. Some Letters from Paris ſay, that the Clergy have got ſo much the Advantage of the Parliament, that the King will, it's thought, exile the Members of that Aſſembly.

Private Letters from Paris intimate, that the Memorial lately delivered by the French Ambaſſador here, about the Ship Phœnix, is partly the Occaſion of ſuſpending the Conferences between the Britiſh and French Commiſſaries in that City; and they inſinuate, that when any Miſtakes have been made in Courts of Judicature, which cannot be rectified without breaking through legal Forms, the Crown ought to make good the Damage done to the Parties aggrieved by ſuch Miſtakes.

May 18. Yeſterday Morning, Dr. Archibald Cameron was carried from the Tower (attended by ſeveral of the Wardens, and a Party of the Guards) to the Court of King's Bench, and there arraigned upon the Act of Attainder paſſed againſt him and others, for being in the late Rebellion, and not ſurrendering in due Time, and admitting himſelf to be the identical Perſon, having nothing to ſay to the contrary, Judgment was pronounced againſt him by the Court; and his Execution was fixed as Yeſterday three Weeks. The Sentence is, to be hanged, drawn, and quartered, and his Head to be diſpoſed of according to his Majeſty's Pleaſure. The Court firſt intended his Execution to be next Thurſday ſe'nnight; but he begged to be permitted to ſee his Wife, who, with ſeven Children (entirely dependant on him for Support) are now at Liſle; upon which it was poſtponed a Week longer.

May 22. Our Correſpondent at Paris wants Words to expreſs the univerſal Amazement on the King's baniſhing the whole Parliament of Paris; and more eſpecially at the Pains taken by the firſt Preſident, and the Members of the great Chamber, to ſhare in the Diſgrace of their Brethren, and the ſtrong Appearance there is that the Parliament of Rouen, and perhaps other Parliaments, will perſiſt in the like Meaſures.

May 23. Tueſday the Sheriffs, and a great Number of Merchants of this City, attended at the Houſe of Commons about the Bill for naturalizing the Jews.

According to private Letters, there are great Commotions, not only in Paris, but in many other Places, on Account of the Baniſhment of that Parliament.

Yeſterday there was Advice, that the Swift, Bonnell, from Madeira to London, had put into Caſcaes near Liſbon, and that whilſt the Maſter and Crew were aſhore, ſhe was drove to Sea, with a ſtrong eaſterly Wind. There were only the Mate and two Boys on board, when this Misfortune happened; and there was no Account of her a Week after ſhe drove to Sea.

The Companies of his Majeſty's Ships Berwick and Invincible, are ordered to be paid off at Portſmouth.

This Day an Expreſs arrived at the War Office from Scotland, which brought an Account of the Death of Lieutenant General Churchill, who commanded the Troops in that Kingdom.

May 24. Tueſday was held a Board of Admiralty, when all the Lords were preſent, when it was tho't neceſſary to add to each of his Majeſty's Yards an additional Number of Shipwrights and other Artificers, to expedite the building of the Ships now on the Stocks, and to haſten the Repairs of others deſtined for immediate Service.

The ſame Day their Lordſhips took into Conſideration the Loſſes ſuſtained by the poor Seamen of the Aſſurance Man of War, lately loſt on the Needles, and ordered them to be paid their Wages, forthwith at Portſmouth, and 20 s. each Man extraordinary, and gave them three Months Liberty to viſit their Friends.

An Expreſs is arrived from Briſtol, giving an Account, that the Colliers had enter'd that City, and had committed great Outrages an account of the high Price of Corn, and demanding that no more ſhould be exported. When this Expreſs came away the City was in the greateſt Confuſion.

NEWBERN, (in North-Carolina,) June 2.

We hear from Bear-Inlet, That a Sloop belonging to Mr. Stephen Lee, of Onſlow County, was lately caſt away on that Bar, as ſhe was going out, loaded with Pitch and Tar, ſhe ran among the Breakers, and bilged; moſt of the Cargo has been ſaved.

June 16. Capt. Freeman, from New-York, informs us, That off Cape Hatteras, he met with a Sloop from Bath-Town, which had been over the Bar but a few Days, but prov'd ſo very leaky, that ſhe could not proceed on her Voyage, and was endeavouring to get in again; but when he came up with her, ſhe was full of Water, and the People were taking to their Boat, which overſet with them juſt as they got into the Surff; but the People were all ſav'd. Captain Freeman brought in ſome Rigging, and other Things, ſaved from the ſaid Sloop.

July 7. We hear from Eden Houſe, the Seat of our late Governor, That a few Days ſince the ſaid Houſe was, by ſome Accident, entirely conſumed by Fire.

BOSTON.

July 30. Laſt Wedneſday Night, between 12 and 1 o'Clock, a Fire broke out in a Coopers Shop on Bronſdon's Wharff, at the North End of this Town which burnt with ſuch Violence, that in 3 or 4 Hours Time (it being low Water) ſeveral Tenements, Store-Houſes, Shops, and other Buildings, about 30 in Number, were conſumed, together with large Quantities of Boards, Staves, Mahogany, Cordage, Salt, and many other valuable Articles. A Schooner lying near the Wharff, was entirely deſtroyed, and a Sloop burnt down to the Scupper-Holes. Several other Veſſels received much Damage in their Shrouds, Rigging, &c. and very narrowly eſcaped being entirely deſtroy'd, as did ſeveral Dwelling Houſes in the Neighbourhood. 'Tis impoſſible to compute the loſs of the Sufferers, but 'tis certainly very great, for there has not been ſo terrible a Fire for upwards of Twenty Years, tho' we have had ſeveral great ones within that Time.

NEW-YORK.

July 30. We learn by the Captains Davis and Waynman, who arrived here laſt Tueſday in 31 Days from the Bay of Honduras, that the Spaniſh Privateer (or rather Pirate) Brig, taken and brought in there ſome Time ago, by Capt. Sergeant, of Rhode Iſland, was, with the Conſent of the Captors, as well as the Baymen, ſet on Fire, and burnt. We cannot hear of any Hoſtilities committed mitted on our People in those Parts, since the Brig above mentioned has been taken; but that they were in daily Expectation of another Visit from them. The Day after the Captains Davis and Waynman sailed from the Bay they saw a Brig, with a Craft upon Deck, standing in, which they took for a New England Man, but could not speak him, as he bore away for the Commodore of the Fleet, Extract of a Letter from Halifax, dated July 3, 1753.

—" Some Time ago, Governor Hobson sent out a small Sloop to a Place called Shedore, about 12 Leagues Distance from hence, in order to bring up the Indians with their Squaws, according to Treaty; but these inhuman Wretches barbarously murder'd Mr. Cleaveland, part Owner of the Sloop, and five others, and afterwards scalp'd them: Mr. Castile, (the Interpreter) who declared himself a Frenchman, being the only Person of the whole Crew that they saved alive, who arrived here last Night from Cape Breton, and acquainted us with this terrible Disaster. The Indians burnt the Sloop, and the Articles of Peace before Mr. Castile's Face, and desired him to inform his Governor of the whole Affair, upon his Arrival at Halifax. Major John Baptist Cope, was Chief, who I have often convers'd with, and always found him firmly attach'd to the English Interest; and 'tis thought the only Motive that could induce the Indians to perpetrate so cruel an Action, was the Loss of six of their People, who were murdered and scalp'd by some Persons belonging here, some Time since; and we are much afraid more innocent Men will suffer on the same Account."—

Captain Hunter from Spanish-Town, Virgin-Islands, in 12 Days, mentions the Arrival, at St. Thomas, of the Master of the Sloop lately mentioned to be run off with by the Crew from the River Gambia, on the Coast of Guiney, and by them afterwards run ashore to the Westward of St. Thomas: That the Crew of said Sloop had all been apprehended, and committed; but that most of them had again made their Escape: That 2 of the said Crew had however been try'd, and condemned, and were, as last Saturday Fortnight, to be executed at Tortola, Governor Purcell having erected a Gallows for that Purpose before his own Door: That Capt. Ritchie, in a Sloop of Philadelphia, was at Spanish-Town: That a Rhode-Island Brig was at St. Thomas: And, That on Saturday last was a Week, in Lat. 33. 70. he spoke with a Sloop belonging to Philadelphia, bound from the Bay of Honduras to Rotterdam, all well; the Captain's Name he could not hear, as they passed each other in a pretty taught Gale.

Letters from South Carolina, assure us, That they have a Prospect of having the largest Crop of Rice there this Season, ever known.

We are told that a Boat, coming down the North River on Thursday Evening last, had her Mast much shatter'd by the Lightning.

Extract of a Letter from Antigua, dated July 3.

" GEORGE THOMAS, Esq; our General arrived here on Sunday the 1st Instant: He landed the next Day, and was very honourably received."

Last Thursday Twenty two Ladies of Pleasure, who were taken out of several Houses of ill Repute in this City, were committed to the Work-house; and next Day five of them, who could give but a poor Account of themselves, were condemn'd to receive 15 Lashes each, at the Whipping Post, which was performed accordingly, before a vast Number of Spectators, with Orders to depart the Town in Forty eight Hours after, under Pain of Imprisonment; nothing appearing against the Rest, they were dismissed.

Capt. Rash, who arrived here on Wednesday Evening last, in 24 Days from Coracoa, acquaints us, that little or nothing of Business is done in or near the Island, owing principally to the great Number of Spanish Guarda Costas, and other Vessels of Force cruizing down on the Coast of Caraccas: That the Spaniards have lately taken sundry small Craft, but nothing of any considerable Value: That the two Privateers lately fitted out there were laid up, and the Crews of each discharged: And, That he sail'd in Company with Capt. Cox in a Sloop bound to Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, August 2.

Extract of a Letter from Bridge Town, Barbadoes, dated July 10, 1753.

" Two Days ago a Man of War arrived here Express from England, and sailed Yesterday for the Leeward Islands; but her Business as yet is unknown."

Extract of a Letter from Newport, July 24, 1753.

" Last Night our Light House, on Beaver Tail, accidentally took Fire, and is entirely consumed."

Last Week a Man, an Apprentice Lad, and a Child, were drowned in the River Delaware.
